

~~SECRET~~

Approved For Release 2002/08/20 : CIA-RDP78-06363A000300070002-3 (W)
FBI review(s) completed.

29 November 1971

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training

SUBJECT : Weekly Report of School of Intelligence and World Affairs No. 47, 19 - 25 November 1971

COURSE ACTIVITIES

1. Advanced Intelligence Seminar

The third week of AIS No. 7 opened [] and concluded [] 25X1A6B with a visit to the White House offices. [] 25X1A6A
[] the class had a greater opportunity for in-depth class discussions because Messrs.

25X1A9A [] D/NIPE, postponed meeting with the class until 29 and 30 November. In addition to the substantial student discussion regarding the Agency's problems, present and future, the class enjoyed both general and seminar-type talks with three DDI and one DDP speakers. In [] absence, [] his deputy, gave a careful review of the Agency's legislative activities and problems with the Congress. 25X1A9A

On 26 November the members of the AIS visited the Executive Office Building and heard David McManus, Chief of the White House Situation Room, and Mrs. Jeanne Davis, Staff Secretary to the NSC, discuss the support provided President Nixon and Dr. Kissinger. Both speakers were generous with their time and were very frank in answering the students' questions.

2. Intelligence Production Course

There were a number of notable developments during the last two days of the IPC which ended on Wednesday, 24 November. When the class arrived at the White House on Tuesday morning for a visit to the situation room and discussions with the NSC staff members, we were told that the session had been suddenly cancelled [] We are reconvening on Wednesday, 1 December, and have rescheduled a visit to the White House at that time. 25X1

On the final day the DDI dropped into the class during [] presentation. This was the first time most of the students had ever seen Mr. []. He spent about half an hour discussing his management philosophy with the class. Our final speaker was William Cregar of the F.B.I. This appearance was approved by J. Edgar Hoover personally -- the first time in recent years as far as we know, that Hoover has approved

25X1A9A

25X1A9A

Approved For Release 2002/08/20 : CIA-RDP78-06363A000300070002-3

~~SECRET~~
~~SECRET~~

GROUP 1
Excluded from automatic downgrading and declassification

SECRET

Approved For Release 2002/08/20 : CIA-RDP78-06363A000300070002-3

such a presentation. Cregar did a fine, diplomatic job in discussing the F.B.I., its current problems and its relationship to the Intelligence Community. He skillfully fielded a number of provocative questions about Hoover and his policies.

BRIEFING ACTIVITIES

1. On 19 November, at Quantico, [redacted] on CIA -- with an emphasis on counterinsurgency -- for 120 Marine Corps officers attending the USMC Command and Staff College.

25X1A9A

2. On 23 November, [redacted] on the production of finished intelligence for five [redacted] officials.

25X1A9A

25X1C8C

OTHER ACTIVITIES

1. Encouraging Comments on "Perception and Communication" Unit

We are continuing to receive encouraging feedback on our developmental one-day unit "Problems of Perception and Communication" in the introductory Intelligence and World Affairs course. [redacted] discussed his IWA methodology at the 11 November meeting of the Inter-Agency Roundtable for Area Training. The participants from 11 organizations indicated that our unit is unique as an orientation and familiarization on job-related problems of perception and communication. Special interest was expressed by the FSI, CONARC, USAINTS, and AID.

25X1A9A

2. N.S.A. Visit

Students and faculty of the National Senior Cryptologic Course were briefed by several senior officials during their "Visit to CIA" on 23 November.

25X1A9A

Col. White opened the session with a discussion of the recent reorganization of the intelligence community. Following a brief talk by [redacted] on the Agency's current role and missions, the group was briefed by representatives of Division D, FI Staff; by an O/S official on counter-audio-surveillance; and by a panel of senior officials from ONE, OER, OSI, and OCI on the Agency's production responsibilities.

25X9A8

The group was most responsive and participation was excellent. Bob [redacted] of NSA has already requested a repeat performance for the next course in April 1972.

Approved For Release 2002/08/20 : CIA-RDP78-06363A000300070002-3

SECRET

SECRET

Approved For Release 2002/08/20 : CIA-RDP78-06363A000300070002-3

PERSONNEL NOTE

25X1A9A

[redacted], who underwent shoulder surgery in Arlington Hospital earlier this week, is recuperating nicely and expects to go home this week-end. He hopes to be back at work, at least on a part-time basis, in about ten days.

25X1A9A

[redacted]
Chief, School of Intelligence and World Affairs

SECRET